

Behavior expectation or rule to be taught: Be Respectful

Location for expectation: Hallway

Rationale- tell why following the rule is important: It is important to be respectful to your peers and adults in school. Using words or actions to harass, tease, or bully another person is inappropriate and can hurt others physically or emotionally. Negative interactions in the school interfere with learning and can cause problems at school and in the community

Provide examples to help students better understand what is and what is not the expected behavior:

Examples of expected behavior. Choose examples of that best “fits” the general case of what the behavior expectation	Non examples of expected behavior that are: -More similar to examples of expected behavior rather than outrageous nonexamples -Typical of what students do when they are not engaged in the expected behavior
Joe bumped into Mary in the hallway and her books fell to the ground. She was upset because she would be late to class and started to call him names. Joe recognized that he was not paying attention and decided to apologize and help Mary pick up her books. Her teacher gave him a positive referral, and Mary thanked him for resolving the problem with respect.	Joe bumped into Mary in the hallway and her books fell to the ground. She was upset because she would be late to class and called Joe a “jerk.” Joe got angry and told Mary she was ugly and stupid. He walked away and Mary was late for class. Mary was mad and began to spread untrue rumors about Joe to her friends.

Provide opportunities to practice and build fluency:

1. Set aside a few minutes at the beginning of each period to practice the rule.
2. As the teacher models, have individual students demonstrate examples and nonexamples of following the rule (role play)
3. Tell students about the consequences for following and not following the rules

Acknowledge appropriate/expected behavior:

- When students model the expected behavior during the practice session, the teacher will point out how the behavior demonstrates showing respect to others.
- The teacher will acknowledge respectful behaviors from students throughout the day following the “Be Respectful” lesson
